

CAPT Members Invited to Apply for 2026 WAGE Scholarship

Penny C. Rasmussen Scholarship

Through the Working Assembly of Governmental Employees (WAGE), two $500 scholarships will be awarded to help support the educational goals and professional development of members of WAGE-affiliated organizations and their first-degree dependents. As a WAGE-affiliated organization, CAPT will review and select one applicant to forward to WAGE for final scholarship consideration.

Eligibility

Applicants must be:

- A CAPT member in good standing, or
- A first-degree dependent of a CAPT member in good standing

Application Process

Contact your Chapter President to verify membership eligibility and obtain a scholarship application. Completed WAGE scholarship applications must be submitted directly to your Chapter President by email, including links to the following:
